

The Wax Museum Rubric

Name _____

	4	3	2	1	Points
Report Content	Student provides a detailed and informative account of their famous person's life & includes all required topics.	Student provides an informative account of their famous person's life & includes all required topics.	Student provides brief information and lacks details and/or does not include all required topics.	Student did not provide enough information and is missing requirements about their famous person.
Report Organization	Well-organized and sequenced information.	Somewhat organized and sequenced information.	Report shows some sense of organization and sequence of different topics.	Report shows little sense of sequence and organization of different topics.
Report Mechanics	Report has no spelling mistakes or grammatical errors.	Report has not more than two spelling and/or grammatical errors.	Report has three or four spelling and/or grammatical errors.	Report has five or more spelling and/or grammatical errors.
Report Neatness & Cover	Creative and neat cover with picture. Exceptionally neat report carefully written or typed.	Nice cover with picture. Neat report, carefully written or typed.	Cover is messy or is missing a picture of ancestor. Written work is fair, and is not neatly assembled.	No cover and/or picture. Messy written work not neatly stapled or assembled.
Presentation	Student maintains good eye contact, a good volume and pronunciation is excellent. It is difficult to imagine the speech given better.	Student maintains eye contact, a good volume, and good pronunciation. Speech is clear and coherent.	Student needs to work on eye contact, volume, or pronunciation to better communicate ideas/concepts.	Speech is not clear or coherent. Student does not maintain eye contact, an appropriate volume or pronunciation.
Costume	Student's costume and/or props is excellent portrays the famous person.	Student's costume and/or props portray the famous person.	Student's costume is not specific to the famous person.	Student did not wear a costume for their presentation.
Research notes & Speech notes	Notes are included.

